OHIO IN THE FIELD

Yesterday Afternoon's Report. MATTERS AT WASHINGTON.

The Herald's Washington correspondence states that the Government is determined to keep Anderson in Sumber, and supply him with provisions furtherin. A position of the Best will leave for Charleston to day (Tousday), for that purpose. There is no desire to put additional men in the Fort nuless resistance is offered in the attempt to runnish supplies. The freet will not approach Charleston with any hostile intent, but supply vessels go prepared to reply promptly to any relatance of a warlike character offered to a peace-ind approach to the Fort. Capt. Author carried instructions to this effect to Anderson, with or den to open his latteries if vessels are fired on. Recruiting is fast gaing on, and at least 50,000 volunteers will be affered from the Free States in a few days. Gov. Dennison of Ohio pledges the support of his State to a vigorous policy, and returns home immediately to execute his pledge:

The moment the President has official knowledge that any blow has been struck, he will leave a produmation for an extrn session of Congress.
